MEDIA ADVISORY

Consolidated Association of PRIDE, Fronteras Desk, Q Vegas, the Tropicana, SNAPI and Not In Our Town Partner to Host PRIDE Conference and Screen "Not In Our Town: Light In The Darkness" PBS Documentary

Las Vegas, NV February 16, 2012 - The Consolidated Association of Pride (CAPI) is proud to invite you to cover the four-day Annual CAPI Conference scheduled for March 22 - 25, 2012 at the Tropicana Hotel. The event is to feature local and regional speakers, discussion panels, workshops, and training sessions aimed at helping PRIDE organizations and other non-profits throughout the Western United States enhance their annual celebrations and events.

The conference will take place on Friday and Saturday, March 23rd and 24th, 2012 from 9:00 to 4:00 PM at the Tropicana Hotel & Casino.

This year's conference features three opportunities to watch the PBS Documentary Not In Our Town: Light in the Darkness that tells the story of the town of Patchogue, Long Island and how their community came together to take action after an anti-immigrant hate crime devastated the community. The Not In Our Town movement has spanned more than 15 years and has included the grassroots efforts of communities fighting hate across the country. To find out more, visit www.niot.org.

Not In Our Town: Light in the Darkness showings are free and open to the public; scheduled for 10am, 12pm, and 2pm on Saturday, March 24th, 2012. A panel discussion will follow the 2pm screening.

If you would like to interview the filmmaker or characters from the film, please contact Ashley Rodriguez, asrodriguez@kpbs.org.
