- B. Written or actual notice of the date, time and location of the Annual Meeting shall be given at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. Notice must be provided to all Directors, Officers, and Members at their address or via email as it appears on the records of the Corporation.
- C. The date, time and location of the Annual Meeting shall be published to the general public with reasonable notice to facilitate their participation.
- D. The Annual Meeting shall include but not be limited to the State of the Organization report, discussion of the Corporations purpose and direction for the ensuing year and the Election of Directors and Officers.

Section 3 - Special Meetings

- A. Special Meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose may be called at any time by the President, Vice-President, or a majority of the Board of Directors.
- B. Written or actual notice of the date, time and location of the Special Meeting shall be given to each Director one (1) days prior to the Special Meeting. The purpose of the meeting need not be specified in the notice.

C. Special Meetings need not be open to the public and can be treated as Executive Session.

Section 4 - Waiver of Notice/Validation

- A. Attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of any meeting, except when such attendance at the meeting is for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Any Director may waive notice of a meeting by executing written notice of waiver before, during or after the time of meeting.
- B. The actions of the Board of Directors at any meeting, however called or noticed and wherever held, are valid as though a properly noticed meeting has been held, provided a quorum of the Board of Directors signs a Waiver of Notice, or thereafter provides written approval of the Minutes and files them with the Records of the Corporation.

Article X - Special Corporate Actions and Regulations

Section 1 - Execution of Written Documents

- A. Contracts, deeds, and agreements shall be approved by the Board, then be signed by the President and both the Secretary and committee chairperson, (except where otherwise stipulated in these By-laws, SOP's or the Articles of Incorporation), then executed by the President, or Vice-President, and the Secretary.
  - 1. The President, as Chief Executive Officer, must legally represent the organization.

Section 2 - Signing of Checks and Notes

- A. Checks, notes, drafts, and other demands for money shall be signed by any of the Officers of the Corporation, and the Board of Directors may, at their discretion, charge additional Director(s), and/or an approved individual with the power to sign such items with the exception of the Treasurer. The Treasurer shall never have signing privileges or access to liquid assets of the organization in accordance with Article XII, Section 2.
- B. The Treasurer must maintain control of the check book at all times and may only release such funds as are available according to the records of accounting.
- C. The Treasurer may only release such funds as have been duly approved in a budget by the Board of Directors. Unbudgeted or over-budget expenses must be expressly approved in accordance with the SOP's.
- D. In the absence of the Treasurer, inability of the Treasurer to act, refusal of the Treasurer to act, or at the direction of the Board of Directors, the President and Vice-President (or any two approved Officers) may disperse funds upon the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the Board of Directors.

Section 3 - Compensation

- A. Officers, Directors, and Members of the Corporation shall serve without compensation, except that they shall be allowed reasonable advancement, reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their regular duties, or compensation for necessary performance outside of their regular duties, as approved by the Board of Directors.
- B. Personal expenses will not be reimbursed per the provisions set forth in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article XI - Corporate Funds and Investments

Section 1 - Bank Accounts

- A. The Board of Directors is authorized to select such banks or other depositories as it shall deem proper for funds of the Corporation.
- B. Approved Officers shall be authorized, as described in these By-laws, to sign checks, drafts, or other payments of funds on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 2 - Investments

- A. The funds of the Corporation may be invested and reinvested from time to time in such property, stock, bonds, or other securities as the Board of Directors may deem desirable.
- B. The Officers shall be authorized, as described in these By-laws, to invest funds on behalf of the Corporation.
- C. Corporate funds may remain un-invested to the extent deemed advisable by the Board of Directors.

Article XII - Indemnification

Section 1 - Indemnification of Directors, Officers or Members

- A. The Board of Directors may provide for the indemnification of the Board of Directors, Officers, and Members of the Corporation, including volunteers, employees, and agents of the Corporation, as provided in N.R.S. 82.541.

Article XIII - Parliamentary Authority

Section 1 - Conduct of Business

- A. The rules contained in the current version of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the Corporation in all cases to which they are applicable. In any instance in which they are inconsistent with these By-laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or with the Standard Operating Procedures of the Corporation, the corporate documents shall govern.
- B. At the discretion of the Board, matters of procedure in Robert's Rules of Order may be simplified or overturned with an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Board of Directors at a duly called meeting where a quorum is present.

Article XIV - Conflicts of Interest and Confidentiality

Section 1 - Definition of Conflict of Interest

- A. A conflict of interest arises when the interests of a Director or Officer have the potential to be at odds with the best interests of the Corporation. The Board member's interests may be personal or professional.
  - 1. A conflict of interest exists when there is the potential for interests to be at odds.
  - 2. A conflict of interest exists regardless of the outcome of a situation. Because the process of how the decision is made is of importance, a conflict may exist even when the Corporation benefits.

Section 2 - Disclosure & Conflict of Interest

- A. Directors and Officers must disclose activities or conduct which could be perceived to be potential conflicts of interest to the Board of Directors.

This includes:

1. Using the position with the Corporation or confidential knowledge gained as a Board Member, Committee Chair, or Committee Member, or Volunteer for personal or professional benefit. The Corporation's interest will be the priority within the role of the Organization.
2. Identifying organizations in which they currently hold volunteer, board, or staff positions.
3. Attesting to the fact that they were not:
  - i. a participant, directly or indirectly, in any arrangement, agreement, investment, or other activity with any vendor, supplier, or other party doing business with the Corporation which has resulted or could result in personal benefit to them, or;
  - ii. A recipient, directly or indirectly, of any salary payments or loans or gifts of any kind or any free service or discounts or other fees from or on behalf of any person or organization engaged in any transaction with the Corporation.

- B. After disclosure of a potential conflict of interest a Director or Officer may not:

1. Make motions or recommendations that would create a conflict of interest.
2. Participate in any vote that would create a conflict of interest.
3. Participate in discussion that would sway the vote.

- C. The Corporation and all its Members, Directors, Officers or Agents will avoid all conflicts of interest and the appearance of conflicts of interest.

- D. An undisclosed or improperly handled conflict of interest may be grounds for discipline up to and including removal in accordance with the policies outlined in these By-laws, the Articles of Incorporation, and other resolutions duly approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 3 – Confidentiality

- A. Must maintain confidentiality established by the Corporation and those of common sense such as, but not limited to:

1. Personnel matters,
2. Organizational matters,
3. Creative or other intellectual, and
4. Personal information about the Corporation.

- B. Will not share any confidential information with any non-Corporation persons, nor with other Board members, Associate and/or Advisory Board Member, Committee Chairs, or Committee Members for which that information is not intended. Disclosing confidential information is subject to disciplinary action.

- C. Will not disclose through any means or methods the names of financial contributors, unless authorized by the Board of Directors or the information is already public. Must exercise good judgment in discussing the Corporation and its activities.

- D. Because information is created for the Corporation, it is valuable to the Corporation; as such, sharing this information outside would be wrongful and could cause harm to the Corporation.

- E. Both during and after the period of involvement with the Corporation, information must be kept confidential.

- F. After the period of involvement, any physical or digital confidential information and property shall be returned to the Corporation. Any electronic material must be destroyed or returned as instructed by the Board of Directors.

Article XV - Corporate Property

Section 1 - Corporate Name, Logos, and Intellectual Property

- A. SNAPI shall maintain sole and exclusive right to the use of its corporate name and all other event names, logos, and intellectual property as designated by the Board of Directors.
- B. Use of any of these for promotion, advertising, fund-raising, and/or any type of solicitation must be pre-approved in advance by the Board of Directors by majority vote.

Section 2 - Records and Property

- A. SNAPI shall maintain ownership of all property purchased by or donated to the Corporation, unless a majority of the Board of Directors authorizes that property to be sold or gifted to another individual or organization.
- B. SNAPI shall maintain sole and exclusive ownership of all records of the Corporation including, but not limited to, meeting minutes, budgets, books of fiscal accounting, contracts, correspondences, intellectual property (included but not limited to any media items created, designed, and/or built for the Corporation, regardless of who created it), physical property (included but not limited to any physical items designed, created, and/or built with materials paid for by the Corporation), and all other written or electronic records of the organization's activities and/or plans for furthering of its purposes.
- C. Any individual in possession of the above who severs their ties to the Corporation, either through death, removal, or resignation, must return all such items to an Officer of the Corporation within ten (10) days of vacancy.

Article XVI - Amendments and Additions

Section 1 - Amendments

- A. The By-laws of the Corporation may be repealed, altered, amended, or substituted by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Board of Directors present, provided:
  - 1. A quorum is present.
  - 2. The amendments must be presented at the Annual Meeting.
- B. The By-laws of the Corporation may not be altered in such a way as to make any purposes, or execution of such purposes, illegal under Federal, State, or Local law.

Section 2 - Adoption and Effective Date

- A. Any Amendments to these By-laws approved in the manner prescribed above will become effective immediately unless otherwise specified in the resolution to approve said amendments.
- B. Properly adopted amendments supersede any and all previous By-laws and all resolutions inconsistent herewith.

Section 3 - Distribution of By-laws

- A. A copy of the most current By-laws must be distributed to all newly elected Directors or Officers upon the next General Meeting of their election.
- B. A copy of amended By-laws will be distributed to all Officers and Directors upon the - next General Meeting following the adoption of any amendments.

- C. Members of the Corporation or members of the public must be provided with a copy of the By-laws within thirty (30) days of a written request being made to any Officer of the Corporation.
