

L A S V E G A S PRIDE PRIDE

Welcome "This is it!" Attendees,

On behalf of the Southern Nevada Association of PRIDE, Inc. Royalty team, we welcome everyone to fabulous Las Vegas for the annual CAPI Conference! The Board of Directors has planned a truly exciting and informative weekend designed to kick off the 2012 PRIDE Season. As the reigning Mr. and Miss Las Vegas PRIDE, it is our honor to serve as your guides throughout the conference.

As Mr. and Miss Las Vegas PRIDE, we spent 2011 visiting many of the cities you represent. With our contingent of showgirls and showboys we walked in your parades, spent time in your festivals, and enjoyed the warm hospitality of your communities. Now it's our turn to share our hospitality with you. Whether this will be your first time in Las Vegas or you've been here a dozen times, you will find that Las Vegas has something to offer every visitor.

Again, we couldn't be more excited about hosting the annual CAPI Conference in Las Vegas. We are thrilled that you made the commitment to be here with us. See you around the Tropicana Hotel and at all the scheduled events!

See you all soon and travel safely,
Diana Prince, Miss Las Vegas PRIDE 2011
KC Golightly, Mr. Las Vegas PRIDE 2011

Your PRIDE is showing!
